English Martyrs Players Present

A scary ghost story for January.

THE WINTER OF 1917

by David Crampton. Six travellers, lost without a compass, stumble across a deserted country house. They go inside to seek refuge.....

Join us on the 17th January @ 7.30 to find out what happens next!

Login in using the familiar Parish Zoom and Facebook links.

And coming soon (7th February) Lock Down In Little Grimley, a ribald comedy by David Tristram. Set in the present - a drama group cope with Covid 19 or do they?!

CHRISTMAS THANKS

Deep thanks to all parishioners for your very generous Christmas prayers, cards and gifts. Many expressed how helpful/supportive the masses online during the Covid 19 crisis had proved. Integral to the fruitfulness of all the parish's online services has been the kind and continued input of Readers, musicians and others has been. To them all we say a very big thank you. Similar gratitude goes out to those who have helped as Stewards and cleaners during times when it has been possible to open the church for congregations. Combined with the practical charity of the SVP and friends plus the creativity of the EM Players, the parish has proved itself resourceful and generous in many ways during these difficult times. Please God, we will be able to meet up normally at some point in 2021, but until then we can be confident in the support of one another. My prayers and good wishes to all you and all your families & friends for a happy & healthy New Year. Fr John.

100 Club:

6.12.20 EM Parish (25); 13.12.20 R. Littlefair (37)
20.12.20 S. Blaza (77); 27.12.20 C. Pugh (47)

Apologies for the delay in getting cheques to recent winners. Hopefully the new cheque book which is on order will arrive shortly. Thanks to all 100 Club Players for their support through 2020. If you would like to join the weekly draw, please contact Fr John.
